

The process of registering joint proposals between faculty members of Birjand University of Medical Sciences and overseas universities

Initial communication and agreement with a professor outside Iran

Completion of a memorandum of understanding between two universities, two research centers or two laboratories related to the Iranian and foreign professors

Writing the proposal and presenting it along with the memorandum of understanding in the research council meeting

Approval of the proposal in the respective universities

Concluding a contract in line with the approved proposal between the universities

Announcing the final result to the faculty member, issuing the official consent of Birjand University of Medical Sciences, and sending it to the foreign professor